

PRESS RELEASE

BELVAL – 16 MAY 2023

CHANGE IN THE LIST MANAGEMENT

The Luxembourg Institute of Science and Technology (LIST) has announced that Thomas Kallstenius, its CEO, has chosen to leave the organization to pursue a new opportunity with effect on 31 May 2023 evening.

The Board regrets Thomas Kallstenius' decision and wishes him the best of luck in his future. Thomas has expressed his gratitude for the opportunity to lead LIST for 4.5 years. He has acknowledged the excellence of the LIST staff and he thanks them, as well as LIST's Board of directors, all of our partners and the Ministry of Higher Education and Research for their trust and support. Under his leadership, starting in 2019, the Institute has continued to achieve very solid scientific results, increasing its impact and visibility in Luxembourg and beyond.

The Board will appoint a "Directeur Général du LIST faisant fonction" on an interim basis. The Board is committed to ensure a smooth transition to a new leadership. Thomas will continue as CEO of LIST until 31 May 2023, assisting the Institute in the transition envisaged by the Board.

About LIST

The Luxembourg Institute of Science and Technology (LIST) is a research and technology organization (RTO) under the auspices of the Ministry of Higher Education and Research, and its mission is to develop competitive and market-oriented prototypes of products and services for public and private stakeholders.

With 680 employees, 75% of whom are researchers or innovators from all over the world, LIST is active in the fields of information technology, materials, space resources and the environment, and works across the entire innovation chain, from basic and applied research to technology incubation and transfer.

By transforming scientific knowledge into intelligent technologies, data and tools, LIST:

- helps European citizens make informed choices
- helps public authorities make decisions
- encourages companies to develop
